quality experience.

Equipment

Harlan's carries an extensive range of recognized and trusted brand name beverage and snack food equipment, all designed for safe and easy operation. We don't sell machines, we sell profit concepts.

Supplies

We stock a full inventory of supplies in several warehouses ensuring uninterrupted inventory supply.

Service

We service what we sell. We have a full service department at every branch and stock a full inventory of factory approved parts to get you up and running fast. In the event of a breakdown. Not sure what the problem is? Call us. Many times our factory trained and certified service technicians are able to resolve your problem right over the phone.

Delivery and Distribution

We deliver across Canada with a fleet of Harlan's trucks as well as an extensive combined network of dedicated partner carriers. This means your order will arrive as promised with no interruptions to your business operations. Minimum orders size may be required.

Promotion and New Product Introductions

To help our customers get started with new programs we offer seasonal promotions throughout the year. Staying one step ahead is an important competitive advantage and to that end, we are committed to staying on top of emerging industry trends. We introduce new products throughout the year to ensure our customers are at the forefront of these emerging trends and their ensuing profit potential. Check our website often to see what's new and to see what the current promotions are.

enjoy:)
